NEW YORK, April 22—For the second time in its history the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange did business to the consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange did business to the property of the volume of business was fairly large, exceeding over 120,000 shares. Much of the trading was for out-of-town account, many orders being executed for Boston and Philadelphia as well as for customers of the local Stock Exchange. The market was firm and active from the outset, Reading being the principal feature. Other strong and active stocks included Amaigamated Copper, St. Paul, Union Pacific, Baltimore and Ohlo and Southern Pacific, There was considerable trading in the known industrials, including Smelting, Leather, Colorado Fuel and Iron, Tennessee Coal and Pressed Steel Car. The strong tone was maintained throughout, notwithstanding profit-taking, and the closing was in most instance at the best.

NEW ORLEANS, ADIR 22.-COTTON-

There was a moderate business in the spot market to day at full prices. Weather reports from the Bureau and also from the country show that many sections are suffering from want of rain. Not only has planting been delayed, but that part of therop reported as already planted is the first prices were up a few points on the opening and continued to advance until prices were up a few points on the opening and continued to advance until prices were 56% points above yesterday's closing. Profit-taking on the port of scalpers caused a reaction. This was followed by another upturn, the market remaining firm to the close, when the board showt gains of from 46% points on April, May, July; 6 on August, and 16% on April, May, July; 6 on August, and 16% on the other months.

LYNCHBURG TOBACCO MARKET.

Lynchburg, Va., April 22, 1903.

Receipts of tobacco in the warehouses of the city last week amounted to 287,000 pounds, which was a considerable falling off as compared with several preceding weeks. The condition of the tobacco offered shows some improvement, though there was a little mould on much of it. Prices showed a tendency to advance, and it is expected that they will be still better.

Richmond, Va., April 22, 1903.

The condition of the tobacco market during the week ending April 3d closed very firm, and we can report higher prices on all grades in good order. The market started off the first of the week very active and has kept up about top figures at previous quotations. There were some good tobacco for sales and several lots sold for fine prices, ranging from 15 to $23.50 per hundred—the highest price for the season for sun-cured to-bacco.

WITH CAMPBELL

Does Not Think the Senate Should Accept "Hearsay Evidence" of the House.

Hon. Holmes Conrad, counsel for Judge Clarence J. Campbell, of Amherst, in the investigation of the case before the House Committee for Courts of Justice, has written to Judge Campbell in reference to the published inference that he had retired and Wise and Walkins, of this city, as his counsel.

"This is taken to mean that Hon. Helmes Conrad, who represented Judge Campbell in the proceedings before the House Committee, has retired from the case. Of course, his reasons for such action are largely a matter of speculation."

So far from having retired from the case, my interest in it has deepened, and my efforts have not abated since the conclusions of the committee were announced, and I am now engaged in the consideration of some possible future aspects of it.

The conduct of the committee in the long and tedious course of the proceedings had before it won my admiration. Their unfaltering patience, intelligent attention and conscientious discharge of the uncongenial duty laid upon them entitles their conclusions to respectful consideration, but those conclusions were, I confess, a great surprise to me. I had heard and weighed the evidence as it was introduced, and had carefully and dispassionately read and considered it all when prearing to address the committee, and my conclusion then was, and yet is, that, giving to that evidence its fullest weight, it failed utterly to sustain the charges in support of which it was offered. I am of the opinion, also, that this evidence, so taken, cannot lawfully be considered by the Senate in its investigation of the "ceuse" for which the Constitution authorizes the General Assembly to remove a judge. That mass of testimony is, as to the Senate, the merest hearsay evidence, which no court in the land would entertain.

dence, which has content and the published statement given above, to make this statement in my own account, as well as on yours, and you are at liberty to use it as you may desire.

Yours very truly,

HOLMES CONRAD,

LEAVE SUNDAY LAWS TO CITIES AND TOWNS

An interesting amendment to section 3739 of the Code was offered in the Senate on yesterday by Mr. Chapman, of Greene, designed to leave to local control the matter of what trade or calling may be pursued on the Sabbath. The amendment, which will be widely read, is as follows:

That the municipal government of the city or town of this Commonwealth may, by ordinance, permit such trade, calling or employment as said municipal government may deem necessary, and from time to time said municipal government may enlarge or restrict the operation of this statute as to it shall seem proper.

The bill was referred to its proper committee.

The Senate Committee Rejects the Claytor Freight Bill.

The Senate Committee on Roads and Internal Navigation met yesterday afternoon and further discussed the bill offered by Mr. Claytor, of Bedford, to require the first railway company handling through freight to be responsible to the shipper for its safe delivery to its destination.

The bill had tination.

The bill had, on a former occasion, been advocted by its patron and opposed by Mr. W. A. Glasgow, of Roanoke. Yesterday Hon. A. P. Thom, of Norfolk, made an elaborate argument against the measure and it was advocated by Mr. A. W. Patterson, of this city, after which the committee decided to report it with the recommendation that it do not pass.

EXHIBIT AT ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION

Mr. Herbert Barber Appears Before the Virginia Commissioners.

Louis Exposition met yesterday after-noon at the office of Commissioner of Agriculture Kolner, a member of the Commissioners Bowman and Patton and Commissioners Bowman and Patton and Assistant Commissioner Baker, The commission is making plans to collect the State's exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition and is gratified at the prospect of a fine display of the State's products, Mr. Herbert Barbee, of Luray, a wide light which was a subject of the exhibit of fine arts. He is the sculptor of the effigy of the Confederate private soldier in the monument at Luray a work exquisitely done in marble, which has been highly commended by critics. He also designed the Confederate monument at Rappahannock courthouse. Mr. Barbee's father, Mr. Wm. R. Barbee, is even more widely known in the world of art, being the designer of the Lost Piciad, The Star of the West, The Coquette and the Fisher Girl all well-known pleess of statuary. Mr. Barbee desires to exhibit some of his work at St. Louis, The works of the elder Barbee are widely known and greatly admired. The son now has the casts of these pleeces of exhibition at St. Louis and later at Jamestown. The work known as The Coquette was sold here in this city years ago for $7,000, the late Jno. G, Meem becoming the purchaser. It is the desire Assistant Commissioner Baker, The

Mr. Barbee has several of his works at the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture in the Library building. It is the hope of Mr. Barbee that in the entergement and improvement of, the State Capitol niches will be provided for busts and statuary by Virginians, and it is in contemplation of such a contingency that he hopes to perpetuate the memory of his father by donating to the State a bust and one of that artist's most famous works.

Fairmount News

Tribulation has visited the home of Mr. Charles Dixon, of No. 1200 Twenty-third Street, and as a result of which the youngest of his three children, a sweet girl, Linda, two years old, was buried yesterday afternoon, while still another, Etha, is said to be dying and a third, his eldest, Madge, is reported as alightly improved. Whooping cough, measles and pneumonia invaded the quiet little cottage at once, the three children, then in the best of health, being stricken one after the other. Clifton Thacker, of No. 1114 North Twenty-second Street, mysteriously disappeared from his home Tuesday morning, as a result of which his wife is greatly worried. It is feared that he has wandered off during a fit of mental aberateless.

Was More Successful Elsewhere.

The police are in search of an unknown who attempted early in the week to pass a forged check on Mr. Albert Creentree. That he did not get away with 86% is due entirely to the forethought ad precaution of the merchant.

The stranger entered the store and askeed Mr. Cicentree if he would cash a check for Mr. Sydnor, of Sydnor & Hundley. He was told yes, whereupon he produced a check of $05. The money was counted out, but instead of delivering it to the unknown, Mr. Greentree deed do carry it in to Mr. Sydnor, in the meantime the stranger disappeared and it turned out that the check was a forgery.

SWINDLER OUTWITTED

Mr. Greentree Got the Best of the Deal,

RECOVERED HIS TEAM

But Mr. Hicks is Still Looking for the Man Who Took It.

An effort is being made to locate a man who hired a horse and runabout from Hicks' stable last Saturday. He took the team about 10 o'clock and said he would return it about 1 o'clock. He didn't return, and a tracer went out after him.

The man took the team to a stable near the National Cemetery and sold the run-about; then he sold the horse to a man about; then he sold the horse to a man who happened to come along in search of just such a horse.

The animal was brought to the city and put up at Cosby's stable. Mr. Cosby thought he recognized it as Mr. Hicks' horse, and so informed him. The latter identified the animal as his, and then it was learned where the runabout was.

Both have been recovered. The amount of money that changed hands in the transaction was $40.
